Itinerary

Day 1: Phnom Penh Arrival

On the first day of the tour, you will delve into Phnom Penh's fascinating past by visiting its historical landmarks. Our local professional guide will greet you and bring you to a local restaurant for lunch before we proceed to move on.

The itinerary includes a visit to the iconic Royal Palace and Silver Pagoda, where you can marvel at their stunning architecture by exploring more than 500 solid silver blocks and the magnificent 17th-century emerald Buddha statue made of Baccarat crystal and solid gold.

Then we head over for a look at the Independence Monument. This Tourist destination was dedicated on November 9, 1962 to commemorate Cambodia's independence from the French in 1953 while also serving as a memorial to the country's war dead.

Afterward, we leave towards the Central Market, which originated in 1935, where you can shop for jewelry, clothes, and other items.

Last but not least, in the evening, we will be tasting cuisine flavor at a local restaurant for dinner.
