Day 2: Angkor Zipline - Temple Tour - Sunset on Gondola Paddle Boat

The group size is at most 9 guests on a safety journey in approx 1 -3 hours; our certified Sky Rangers will lead you into wildlife, butterflies, flowers, fauna, and towering trees. That will be an unforgettable rainforest eco-expedition for adventurous couples. Afterward, taste lunch at a local restaurant and go back to the hotel for short rest.

Afternoon

When your power is recharged, we will continue to discover the UNESCO Heritage Site since 1992 - Angkor Wat, with your partner, learn about its history and admire mysterious Khmer art architecture in worshipping Hinduism and Buddha.

Move to Bayon Temple, the heart of the last ancient capital Angkor Thom. Stroll hand in hand through the narrow corridors and steep steps that form the astonishing faces of the relief of Lokeshvara, the Bodhisattva of Compassion. Through a collection of exquisite gilded reliefs, you can learn more about the sea battle between the Khmer and the Cham people and daily life, including market scenes, religious ceremonies, cockfighting, chess games, and childbirth. The Phimeanakas, the Royal Enclosure, the Elephants Terrace, and the Terrace of the Leper King are also on your itinerary.

Evening

Bask in the mesmerizing dusk at Prasat Chroung temple aboard the Gondola Paddle Boat in the moat of Angkor Thom. And savor dinner at Madam Butterfly Restaurant.

Day 3: Floating Village Tours with Monk Blessing - Dinner with Apsara Dance Show

Morning

We then continue to the fishing village of Kompong Pluk, board a private boat to see their stilt houses, and explore the seasonally flooded forest on a sailboat. Enjoy the country's natural beauty on a boat trip across Tonle Sap Lake to Chhong Kneas Village. Visit the floating village and discover the centuries-old lifestyle of the lake's inhabitants.

Picnic lunch will be served at the floating restaurant. And our driver will wait for you on land after that.

Afternoon

Back in the car, we drive to the peaceful village of Wat Po Krum along the river. Relaxing in the quaint atmosphere, talking to the villagers, and playing with the children at their school will make you forget the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

The last spot we drop in is Wat Preah Prom Rath. Although it has a history that may date back to the 13th century, everything inside to be seen was built after World War II. By sightseeing colorful statues and lush gardens, you can realize how Cambodian Buddhism is practiced today.

There also offers a private good luck blessing ceremony by local monks who wish you good health and safe travel. The traditional approach to receiving the blessings of the gods is to sit on the mat as the monks recite prayers and sprinkle holy water on you. You will then have a sacred thread wrapped around your wrist. You'll be shielded against mishaps and evil spirits, thanks to this.
