Itinerary

: A O Show Ticket at Saigon Opera House

Before the show, take some time to explore the Saigon Opera House itself. This historic building was built in 1898 by a French architect, who created a stunning “flamboyant” architecture that is sure to impress. Enjoy a short tea break and soak up the atmosphere before the show begins.

Once the performance starts, you will be treated to an incredible mix of music and acrobatics. The music director has painstakingly researched and created a unique blend of Southern Vietnamese work songs, bamboo work, and more.

The performers live right on the stage, using traditional ethnic instruments such as zither, bamboo flute, and lip lute, combined with modern, vibrant beatbox sounds. All of this comes together to create an unforgettable experience that will leave you enraptured.

After the show, you can take some time to chat with the artists and take pictures with them.

NOTES:

- The show is not for children under 5 years old.
- Video recording and taking photos are not allowed during the show.
- Theater doors will be closed 15 minutes before showtime.

- Keep silent, and remember to turn off your phone when watching the show.
