Itinerary

: Dien Khanh Citadel – Yangbay Waterfall – Ponagar Temples – Hot Mud Bath

Morning

08:30: Our tour guide will pick you up at your hotel in Nha Trang.

Stop at Dien Khanh Citadel, one of the oldest citadels in southern Vietnam. You'll be able to explore the citadel with this Western European architecture and learn about its intriguing history.

Afterwards, we will stop at Yang Bay Waterfall. Yang Bay waterfall translates to "Waterfall of Heaven" in the Raglai language. You will be able to cool yourself in the crystal-clear waters and have a leisurely tour around the region. You can also rent a bicycle to explore the natural surroundings or hum to the wonderful sound of the "Dan da" - a traditional musical instrument built of stone slabs by the Raglai ethnic group.

You will be served a delicious lunch at a restaurant near the waterfall.

Afternoon

Visit the Po Nagar Cham Towers, a collection of historic Hindu temples. The temples are outstanding specimens of traditional Cham architecture, where visitors may learn about their history and cultural significance.

Finally, we'll visit the Hot Mineral Spring Center, where you may unwind and revitalize your body and mind. You'll relax in a warm mud bath and mineral water pool, both of which are beneficial to your skin and overall health.

17:00: Return to your hotel in Nha Trang.
